

2012 Continuing Education Scholarship Application and Award Process

1. The Los Angeles Air Force Spouses' Club (LAAFSC) will be awarding at least two scholarships in an amount no less than $1,000 to eligible college students.

2. ELIGIBILITY: An applicant must be a college student seeking an undergraduate degree from a nationally or regionally accredited college with 30 or more college credit hours completed and have achieved a 2.5, or better, Grade Point Average (GPA) from his/her undergraduate studies. The applicant must also be planning to attend a college or university in the summer or fall of 2012.

a. Applicants must be a dependent child of:

- 1) An active duty service member living in the LAAFB area*
- 2) A retired service member  living in the LAAFB area.*
- 3) A military service member missing-in-action or deceased while on active duty. In such cases the dependent must reside in the LAAFB area.*
- 4) A current or retired DoD employee living in the LAAFB area.*

b. Applicants must submit proof of dependent status. (Copy of valid military dependent ID card or DoD employee sponsor's ID card.)

c. Applicants will not be eligible if previously awarded a LAAFSC scholarship.

* Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, Riverside, and Ventura counties

Military Service member includes members of the US Army, US Air Force, US Navy, US Marines, and the US Coast Guard

3. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: All applications must be typed or printed in blue or black ink. A completed package consists of all the items listed in Item 4, submitted as a package. The Application package must be postmarked no later than March 1, 2012. Application packages received after the deadline will not be considered. Completed packages must be mailed to:

LAAFSC
P.O. Box 2175
San Pedro, CA 90731
Attn: Scholarships Chair

4. APPLICATION PACKAGE: Failure to provide all parts of the application package may result in the disqualification of the application. To download the application visit the website www.laafsc.com and click on “Scholarships” tab. The package must include:
 - a. A completed Scholarship Application: Part A (1 page), Part B (1 page) accompanied by an official transcript with original stamp and/or raised seal and signature, and Part C (1 page).
 - b. Proof of dependent status (as listed on Page 1).
5. SELECTION PROCEDURE: Selection of the recipients will be made by a lottery drawing of all applicants on the night of the LAAFSC Charity Auction in March 2012. You do not have to be present to win. All names will be drawn. Should more funding become available, the scholarship will be awarded in order, starting from 1.
6. AWARD MONEY: Scholarship award money is paid directly to the college/university. All funds received shall be applied to tuition and/or associated costs administered by an accredited college or university. These costs may include books, fees, room and board but may not include fees for penalties or dis-enrollment. The LAAFSC Scholarship Chair must be notified (scholarships@laafsc.com) if for any reason the recipient of the award:
 - a. is unable to attend college/university in the summer of fall semesters of 2012.
 - b. plans to transfer to a different college/university.
